ABOUT TINA

Since Tina was 20 she's been self employed. She loves business and loves everything about the freedom it brings and how it enables her to be able to create awesome things to help other people live more joyful lives. This in turn allows her to live a great life with her family.

Tina believes that life is short and we should all act accordingly. We should be making big plans, dreaming big and taking massive action to set our souls on fire.

She is all for using digital to enhance our lives but also for looking up from the screen to enjoy all the world has to offer. Life is good, and Tina wants to help you to live it well.

WHAT TINA TALKS ABOUT

Tina's high energy is contagious. Tina built the National Begin Bright franchise from an idea, to a little suburban tutoring centre, to a franchise network with 33 sites throughout the country.

She's won multiple top business awards including the My Business Magazine awards, the Australian Small Business Champions and the 2014 Telstra Australian Young Business Woman of the Year.

Having started businesses solo and having done everything from marketing, accounting, curriculum design, training, human resources & team management, contract negotiations, teaching, customer service, event planning, business coaching and product development, Tina brings a wealth of knowledge to share with your audience. Tina's businesses have been operating at over 7 figures a year for a decade and so she knows her stuff to help businesses scale.

In 2018 Tina decided to try life differently and ran away to explore the world with her husband and children. After 9 months and 25 countries, the lessons gained were endless. Tina shares her signature enthusiasm and optimism to encourage and inspire your audience to live life your way and create the business that serves both you and the world.

TESTIMONIALS

"Tina is an exceptional presenter with an energetic and friendly style. Our savvy trade business owners at our Lifestyle Tradie live event loved her raw and real presentation '10 Years to An Overnight Success'. Business is certainly not all roses but to hear the secrets of persistence, determination and ultimate success, there is no person better than Tina. Thanks for sharing your knowledge Tina, you rock!"

Andy & Angela Smith, Lifestyle Tradie Group Pty Ltd - Lifestyle Tradie Conference  the freedom to choose...

"I cannot recommend Tina Tower highly enough. She spoke at our Women in Focus conference in 2016 & 2019 and ever since we've tried to emulate what we officially refer to as the 'Tina Tower' effect. Your own event will be richer for having the 'Tina Tower' effect. Simply put, the 'Tina Tower' effect is what happens when Tina shares her story as candidly as she does. With the perfect blend of vulnerability, humour and stage presence Tina has a unique ability at cutting straight to the heart of what matters in business and in life.
